PASSED HERE TO-DAY.

Naval Officers With the Report of the Board of Inquiry.

A large and eager crowd of spectators gathered at the depot today to look at the train which carried Judge Advocate Marix and party with the report of the board of inquiry into the Maine disaster. No interviews could be had and all the consolation Greensboro people had was that it "passed through."

The party occupied comfortable quarters in the drawing room of a Pullman palace car, second from the rear coach on No. 36, and passed Greensboro on time. Lieutenant Commander Marix had in charge the report, in a sealed box which was closely guarded.

Without an accident the report will be in Washington by 10 o'clock tonight, and whatever the nature of the report the tension on the public mind will be greatly relieved when it is published.

To the Federal Prison.

United States Marshal Fred W. Collins, Jr., and two assistants, passed through last night with five prisoners from Meridian, Miss., en route to the Federal prison in Raleigh. The party was composed of three white men, a white woman and a negro boy. Their sentences run from one to three years, and some of them were convicted of robbing the mails; two of them—the woman and one white man, who are said to be man and wife, were sent up for fraudulent pension drawing.

Kersarge Launched.

Newport News, Va., March 24—The battleship Kersarge was launched here this morning at 7:30. Mrs. Herbert Winslow acted as sponsor and broke the bottle of champagne over the bow of the vessel. This is one of the navy's largest battleships. Preparations have been made for the immediate launching of her sister ship, the Kentucky.

Telegraphic Brevities.

Key West, March 24—Three month's provisions and four thousand troops were brought here today by a Mallory liner from New York.

Dublin, March 24—The Spanish torpedo boat destroyer sailed today from Kingston for Falmouth this morning, after coaling.

Albany, March 24—The nomination of Chas. J. Boyd for commissioner of prisons, was confirmed today by the senate without opposition.

Hanna Visits the President.

Washington, March 24—The President, who was in conference with Secretaries Day and Long until 2 o'clock this morning, arose at 8 o'clock and was soon after visited by Senator Hanna.

The greatest possible influence is being brought to bear on the president by financial and Cuban interests, and these are the most trying moments in his life.

The President and Secretary Long anxiously await the arrival of the report of inquiry, which is expected to reach here tonight about midnight. Every effort is being made by the railways conveying the report to prevent any delay in transit.

Illustrated Lecture Tonight.

Our people should not fail to attend the lecture of Miss Jones, in the court house tonight. The subject of this lecture is "The Moral Decorations of the Great Public Library at Washington," illustrated by fine stereoscopic views of one hundred of the finest specimens of American art.

Miss Jones is herself a most attractive speaker, and with such a subject she cannot fail to interest her audience. Those who do not expect to visit Washington soon should not lose this opportunity of learning much about one of our great public buildings, which is regarded as the most magnificent library buildings in the world; while those who do expect to have the privilege of seeing this splendid building for themselves will find the lecture and views great helps toward an intelligent appreciation of the library and its beautiful decorations.

Tickets on sale at Ward's drugstore and Wharton Bros. bookstore at 25c. for any part of the house. Special rates will be given pupils of the city schools, and all who apply will be supplied with tickets at the courthouse on night of lecture. It is hoped each school will be represented by a large body of scholars.

"ACCESSORY TO EXPLOSION."

A Prominent Senator's Most "Surprising Information."

THE SPANISH FLOTILLA SAILED.

Captain Sigsbee and Six Other Officers of The Maine Detached and Ordered Home.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, March 24.—Conference between the leaders of the senate and house which have been almost continuous for the past few days are not so much for the purpose of gaining sentiment in the two houses upon the Cuban situation as to prevent action being taken which will upset the plans of the president.

A prominent senator, referring to last night's White House conference, laid before his colleagues the most surprising information that he had good reason to believe the report of board would not give Spain a clean bill of health, as has been generally supposed, but would submit evidence showing that she was accessory to the explosion.

FLOTILLA SAILED.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, March 24—The navy department has just received information that the Spanish torpedo flotilla which has been at Canary Islands for several days has started westward.

Captain Sigsbee and six other officers were this morning detached from the command of the Maine and ordered home to await orders.

Playing Cards.

Coming in on the C. F. & Y. V. train last evening the writer saw two men in a pine thicket near town sitting on the ground playing cards. One was a white man and the other a negro. Were they playing to be sociable or were they gambling? In either case comment is unnecessary.

Bad Road to Battle Ground.

We are reliably informed that the public highway leading to the Battle Ground is in a most neglected condition. It has received no work for a year, or indeed since Captain Baily, a most public spirited gentleman, had control over it. The Battle Ground Company made a special appeal to the county commissioners to repair the road but no assistance was given. There is not even an overseer on it.

The national congress, the legislature of the state, and the city of Greensboro have contributed to the aid of the Battle Ground but the county commissioners have steadily declined to recognize the enterprise. This is not to the credit of the county or as we believe in conformity to public opinion. More strangers of intelligence pass over the road and form their opinion of the county from it than over any road in it. The Telegram hopes this matter will not be longer neglected.

NOTES FROM HIGH POINT.

The Local News from Our Neighbor Briefly Told.

TELEGRAM BUREAU.
HIGH POINT, N. C., March 24, '98.
A. Wray and his sister, Miss Bessie, of Archdale, spent the day in the city shopping.

Miss Johnnie Rankin, of Greensboro, who has been visiting the Misses Rankin for the past week returned home today.

Dr. W. G. Bradshaw and E. M. Armfield are witnesses in the Arnold case in Asheboro.

Dr. Tomlinson, of Archdale, passed through this morning en route to Greensboro.

We are glad to know that Mrs. F. N. Tate, who has been very sick for several days, is improving.

John Davis, who has been very low with pneumonia, is said to be a little better this morning.

Mrs. M. A. Stone, of Greensboro, and Mrs. E. R. Messick, of Winston, who have been visiting Rev. Mrs. N. R. Richardson for several days, returned to their respective homes yesterday.

The Standard Oil Co. has sent a larger wagon here to meet its increased business. J. D. Paylor has accepted the position as manager of this company's business.

The next of the series of lectures before the graded school will be delivered tomorrow evening in the M. E. church at 8 o'clock, by Dr. John C. Kilgo. Dr. Kilgo visited High Point some years ago and a great crowd went to hear him, and were captured with his eloquence and power. This gifted speaker has a peculiar genius of arousing his audience to will and to do the things about which he speaks, which is genuine oratory. He is exceedingly entertaining to those who may not agree with him in all his views. The town should turn out to hear him and be stirred upon the subject of education—higher education, and Christian education.

Handsome Catalogue.

A handsome catalogue, containing 36 beautiful cuts of mantels and grates has just been issued by those hustling young men, McClamroch Bros., of this city. They deserve the success they have achieved so far, and this move, the issuance of this costly catalogue should, and perhaps will, bring them large returns.

Ball and Bat Items.

Manager Selee varied the practice yesterday afternoon and instead of knocking out grounders and flies and tossing the ball around the diamond he made up two teams and played a five inning game. The colts played all around the regulars and beat them 15 to 3.

The Augustas arrived this morning from Raleigh. They played the A. & M. team at that place yesterday and won by a score of 17 to 11. All of the Augusta boys had not reported to Manager Leonard and he had to fill the places of the absentees with Raleigh players. A number of absent players came in today.

Nichols, Boston's crack pitcher, is still holding out for a raise of salary. He may not join the team until after it returns north.

"No Truth in the Statement."

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

London, March 24—The foreign office has issued a statement to the effect that there is no truth, whatever, in the statement made by the Chronicle today about a long session of the cabinet Monday being called to consider the intimation from Lord Salisbury of his desire, acting under medical advice, to resign the Premiership or the foreign secretaryship.

Ball at Chapel Hill.

Chapel Hill, March 23—The University and Trinity College ball teams crossed bats here yesterday afternoon and the large number of spectators present had the pleasure of seeing one of the best games of the season. The Trinity team was shut out by bad playing at the end of the game the 'Varsity team had 6 runs to her credit. The finest play of the game was made in the second inning, when Belden, of the home team, knocked a three-bagger to center field, bringing in two men and making a home run, on an error at third base.

Chambers, pitcher for Trinity, Lawson, pitcher for U. N. C., did exceptionally fine work.

Gwaltney, the University catcher, also did some good work. Umpire, S. B. Moon, of Durham.
Wake Forest college will play the University team here tomorrow.

FROM THE SPANISH SIDE.

What a Semi-Official Note Just Issued Says.

TO CREATE TREASURY BONDS.

The Report Discredited by Agents of the Bank of Spain in London.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Madrid, March 24—A semi-official note just issued says that at the cabinet meeting yesterday Premier Sagasta received a telegram from Blanco saying that the captain of the Maine had requested permission to blow up the wreck with dynamite and that permission to do so had been refused him.

The cabinet empowered the minister of Foreign Affairs, Gullon, to watch the situation with a view of seeing that justice is done in defending the rights of Spain.

The Minister of Finance declared that the resources were sufficient for all war expenses until the chamber meets. The note was silent in regard to the Spanish commissioners' report on the loss of the Maine.

TO CREATE BONDS.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Madrid, March 24—The Spanish cabinet has decided to create treasury bonds to the amount of two hundred million pesetas upon the guarantee of the Bank of Spain.

REPORT DISCREDITED.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

London, March 24—Agents of the Bank of Spain say they have heard nothing about creating treasury bonds and discredit the report.

Tried to Kill His Best Friend.

Bethlehem, Pa., March 23—Robert Becker, the 13-year-old son of the late Dr. J. G. Becker, attempted to kill his mother, at her parent's home, yesterday. He fired several shots at her, neither of which took effect, and then made a lunge at her with a knife. By-standers disarmed him, and he was turned over to a policeman, who, however, gave him his freedom in response to the pleas of the boy's mother. He will be sent to a reformatory as an incorrigible.

Spain is Anxious.

Madrid, March 23—There is an ominous reticence in official circles here which indicates the gravity of the situation. There is an uneasy feeling that important developments are impending; indeed, that they are momentarily expected.

The government has decided that the censorship of press dispatches shall be much stricter henceforth, and an order has been issued forbidding the transmission over telegraph lines of any information whatever concerning the movements of the Spanish fleet.

To Buy a Wife With His Gold.

Sioux Falls, S. D., Mar. 22—"What am I going to do with it?" responded Jacob Nanchet, who was questioned as to the uses to which he would put $1,500,000 of gold he had brought back to this city, after a ten years' stay in Alaska; "why, first of all I'm going to Philadelphia and buy myself a wife."

Arrested at Tarboro.

Tarboro, N. C., March 23—The sheriff of Abbeville, Ga., arrived here this morning with a bench warrant for the arrest of James G. Mahagan and T. J. Latham, the former cashier and president, respectively, of the bank of Abbeville. The warrant charged these young men with defaulting with twelve thousand dollars of the money of the bank depositors at Abbeville.

The warrant was served on Messrs. Mahagan and Latham today. Mr. Mahagan was in town, and Mr. Latham was in the country. Neither had made any attempt to escape but gave themselves up to the sheriff of this county. They left this afternoon for Raleigh where the case will be heard tomorrow before Judge Clark of the Supreme court.

ANOTHER BICYCLE ACCIDENT.

Plan Hurt by Bicycle—An Ordinance that Should be Enforced.

There was a collision last night between a bicyclist and a pedestrian in South Greensboro in which the rider and wheel escaped unhurt but the man who was run over received several cuts and bruises on his hand and a general shaking up. It was on a dark portion of the street and the bicycle had no lantern on it.

There is a city ordinance which requires the placing of lighted lanterns on bicycles ridden after dark, and makes a rider subject to a fine of $5 for every violation of same. Why this ordinance is not enforced we do not know. If this measure is no longer necessary why not repeal it? If it were thought best to make it a requirement, have the conditions which prevailed then ceased to exist? It is possible that had the bicycle had a lantern on it the accident would not have occurred. It would be well for the proper authorities to look into this matter of lights, the bicycles having become so numerous it is dangerous without the use of lanterns.

Other towns appear to have no trouble in enforcing their bicycle regulations and a little neglect may cause a serious accident.

His Excellency.

The crowd at the academy of music was not so large as we have seen and the play was not all that was anticipated, yet there were some meritorious features. Edwin Davis as "His Excellency" was very good, and deserves better support, or rather a better play.

More Accurate Service in Greensboro Than Baltimore

Mr. C. M. Vanslyke had his little girl's eyes examined in Baltimore last year and went with the prescription to one of the largest and best known optical houses there to have the glasses made up. FORTUNATELY one of the lenses got broken recently and was carried to the Greensboro Eye Specialist to be replaced. He saw at a glance that neither lens accorded with the prescription, and so changed them both. Mr. Vanslyke sent the old lenses with an explanation to the oculist who had given the prescription and in reply received the following:

The bilious brethren who delight to borrow trouble now have an opportunity they can by no means afford to neglect.

As an additional evidence of her humanity and high civilization Spain might expel the Red Cross society from Cuba.

Unless the United States act with promptness the insurgents will not have left enough Spaniards on the island to furnish a good before-breakfast skirmish.

The New York Journal having awakened Assistant Secretary of the Navy Roosevelt has been made aware that he is the same gentleman who was formerly police commissioner in New York City.

Those restless individuals who pine for brisk action and speedy wealth should carefully consider the pension possibilities attached to an enlistment in the navy before they start to the Klondyke.

Harvard and Princeton have decided to debate the question: "Resolved, That the present restrictions on immigration into the United States are insufficient." It is a source of regret that they fail to state the average weight of Princeton's line and the bucking qualities of Harvard's backs.

The Hayseed devotes an entire page to an article going to show that Marion Butler is a self-constituted boss of the national populist party. That is a gratuitous waste of good space. The fact was already well known. Why does not the Hayseed publish those warm exposures which were promised so soon as the Supreme Court of the United States had passed upon the railroad commission case?

The Jersey City rector who recently established a dancing school in connection with his church has hit upon a brand new scheme. He has started a church paper in which he publishes all the delinquencies and short-comings of his members. It is pleasant to note that up to the present failure to attend the dancing school has not seemed to the good rector sufficient cause for holding up any member of his flock to public ignominy.

We are in receipt of a copy of the first issue of the Twin-City Herald, a colored republican paper published at Winston. It serves the following explicit notice upon the republican party:

"To be emphatic, the negro will not be made a tool any longer for any party or fragment of a party in order to empower half-breeds and delinquents to heap indignities upon the self-respecting negroes, and their white brethren who happen to belong to a different political faith.

"If you get anything more you'll be loyal to the negro in all things."

Whether the Herald will be able to command such a following as will make this threat formidable remains to be seen. Hitherto no negro and no colored organ has been able to produce even a temporary defection of negro voters from their white bosses in the republican party.

Spanish bloodthirstiness instead of being a uniform crimson is now piebald.

Occasionally somebody arises to deplore the decadence oratory. We are assured that the newspaper has usurped the function and place of the orator; that in a few years oratory will be a thing of the past. The facts do not bear this out. There is no more difficult place for an orator to speak than in congress. Most of the members have been behind the scenes. They have seen the ropes and pulleys. They know that the giant has increased his stature by the help of a pole; that the stage fairy is powdered and penciled. They are accordingly not very enthusiastic. Yet a young member from Iowa, Mr. Cousins, in a five minutes speech, so swept the house from its feet that it is alleged that had a motion to declare war against Spain been made it would have passed the house by acclamation. Mr. Cousins did not advance a fact with which the house was not already perfectly familiar. It was merely a piece of oratory; but it showed that the orator, when the occasion arises for oratory, is as potent a factor in shaping events as ever before.

General News in a Nutshell.

Color Sergeant Walker of the Royal Scots Fusiliers was captured by the Afriids and kept prisoner six weeks. On his release he was courtmartialled for being absent without leave and though acquitted was condemned to lose his pay for the time he was away from his regiment.

Turkey's Potemkins are preparing Jerusalem for the expected visit of Kaiser Wilhelm next fall. The roads to Jaffa, Jericho and Bethlehem are being repaired, the streets in Jerusalem through which he will pass are being paved, and the aqueducts from Solomon's pools put in order.

King Charles II.'s lock and key to the Star Chamber, once the property of the Duke of Ormonde, were sold at auction in London recently for $945. The lock is of steel, overlaid with brass decorated with applique ornament and engraving. The key is chiselled, pierced and chased and has on it several portraits of Charles II in armor.

Kaiser Wilhelm, like King Canute, has found a check to his arbitrary power. He returned home hungry from and officers' smoking party recently and asked the Empress for something to eat. She told him the cook had retired, and as neither dared wake her up, the Kaiser was compelled to go supperless. The Empress now saves up a cold snack from dinner on the chance of the august appetite's awakening at night.

Booker T. Washington, the well-known colored educator, said in a recent address: "Our race is in too big a hurry. The preachers want the title D. D. before they know divinity. Almost every graduate in the English course must be addressed as 'professor.' We want a biography before we have lived. Some want to take Latin and Greek who do not know the personal pronoun in English. Some want postoffices who do not know how many stamped envelopes to give for 11 cts. Go to the farm; stick to the farm. We do not want to govern the country until we learn how to properly govern the home.

Lemon extract has become a favorite beverage with the Ponca Indians, owing to the quantity of alcohol which it contains; and it is said that they have been able to get roaring drunk on a 50 cent bottle. Because of this fact the Oklahoma grocery stores have been ordered to refuse to sell to the government wards any flavoring extracts containing alcohol.

The government is about to pay an unusual special pension claim to the widow of Lieut. Michael Moore who, at the time of his death in Brooklyn last year, had served in the United States army continuously for 85 years, thus holding the world's record for service of that character. He enlisted as a drummer boy at the outbreak of the war of 1812. His widow is 82 years of age and when her husband died they had been married 63 years.

Electric Bitters.

Electric Bitters is a medicine suited for any season, but perhaps more generally needed when the languid, exhausted feeling prevails, when the liver is torpid and sluggish and the need of a tonic and alterative is felt. A prompt use of this medicine has often averted long and perhaps fatal bilious fevers. No medicine will act more surely in counteracting and freshening the system from the malarial poison. Headache, constipation, dizziness yield to Electric Bitters. 50c, and $1.00 per bottle at C. E. Holton's drug store.

FOR ROBBING THE MAIL.

W. P. Firey Arrested for Stealing a Registered Letter.

Winston, N. C., March 22—W. P. Firey, for three years mail agent on Norfolk and Western road between Winston and Roanoke, was arranged before United States Commissioner Martin here today on the charge of stealing a registered letter containing fifty dollars in currency from the mail pouch on the night of November 10th last.

Firey admitted that he made good eleven dollars while in the postoffice service at Washington several years ago, saying he lost a registered letter containing that amount. He was bound over to the Federal court, his bond being $500.

Fire in Chicago.

Chicago, March 22—The six story building, occupied by the Monroe Catering Company, was burned this morning. Five persons were injured.

SPAIN HURRIES PREPARATIONS.

Determined to Fight Rather Than Sell or Surrender Cuba.

Madrid, March 22—Despite the admitted conviction of all, except, bluffers, that war with the United States would eventually result in the loss not only of Cuba, but of Porto Rico and the Philippine Islands, there is no wavering in the determination to fight rather than to sell or surrender Cuba. Warlike preparations are being pushed vigorously. Transports leave almost weekly, conveying troops and munitions of war to Cuba. The arsenals at Ferrol, Cartagena and Cadiz are working night and day. Conscription and enlistment are active.

Senor Moret, minister of the colonies, shows no sign of abandoning his enthusiastic faith in autonomy as a means of restoring peace in Cuba, and, equally, he does not abandon hope that the United States will postpone any action until autonomy has had what he regards as a fair trial. The supporters of Senor Moret contend that Spain has yielded to every demand made by the United States, thereby acknowledging the justness of her demands, and that there are no more discredited men in Spain than Gen. Weyler and Senores de Lome and Robledo.

Stands at the Head.

Aug. J. Bogel, the leading druggist of Shreveport, La., says: "Dr. King's New Discovery is the only thing that cures my cough, and it is the best seller I have." J. F. Campbell, merchant of Safford, Ariz., writes: "Dr. King's New Discovery is all that is claimed for it; it never fails, and is a sure cure for consumption, coughs and colds. I cannot say enough for its merits." Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds is not an experiment. It has been tried for a quarter of a century, and today stands at the head. It never disappoints. Free trial bottles at C. E. Holton's drug store.

Suicide Due to Trading Stamps.

Wilmington, Del., March 21—It is stated tonight that Deputy Coroner Chandler will give a certificate of death from heart disease in the case of Grocer John A. Light, who was found dead in his bathroom yesterday,
the place being filled with gas.

Mr. Light recently sold his business, declaring that he could not afford to give trading stamps, and they would ruin him. He worried much over the stamps, and this gave rise to the report of suicide; but the family deny the charge.

Hiccoughs for a Week.

Danville, Ky., March 22—H. C. Eaton, a conductor on the Louisville & Nashville railroad, is lying at his

He was attacked with the spasms a week ago, and has been unable to secure any relief.

Mme. Madelaine Lemaire, the flower painter, has been appointed professor of botanical drawing at the Jardin des Plantes Museum of natural history. M. Fremiet, for animals, is the only other professor of art employed.

Married on Thirty Minutes' Courtship.

"You may talk about your brief
courtships and marriages on short notice," said Captain Arm Cardwell once,
"but I think I once witnessed the quickest made match on record. I was running as a conductor between Russellville and Owensboro, as I did for many years, and on a trip in the winter of 1881 I got a pretty country girl passenger at a little flag station south of Central City about 9:45 a. m. A few miles farther on at another small station a
big strapping looking farmer, dressed
in brown jeans, with his trousers tucked in his tall boots, got on my train.
The fellow hadn't opened the car door
till he spied the rustic lass, and before
he took his seat in front of the girl he had smiled at her.

"I punched his ticket, went in the
smoking car, and on my return to the regular passenger coach found the Green river tiller of the soil sitting in the same seat with the maiden, chatting
with her as if he had known her since birth. In 25 minutes after they had
first met the fellow called me to him
and said: 'See here, podner, we want to get hitched. I hain't knowed Mirinda
Jane here but 30 minutes, but we both
like, an she's willin an so'm I. Whur's
the nighest parson, podner?' I took them on to Owensboro, and the happy
bridegroom and his blushing other half
were passengers back on my train that afternoon. For hurry up nuptials it does strike me that these ought to have
the cake and other special prizes offered
for quick yeast love matches."—Louisville Post.

sician with exalted patients all over Europe, who sent him the choicest wines. The emperor of Austria, for instance, had contributed tokay, the king of Prussia rare hock, Queen Christina of Spain priceless aliente, Prince Metternich genuine cachet d'or, and so on.
The whole was kept in a large iron cupboard in the study of the learned physician, known as the Elzevir library.
Eugene was then a college freshman, and, having procured a skeleton key to the closet, with his friends, Adolphe, Adam, Veron and others, proceeded every night to investigate the contents of the bottles. Not wishing to have their explorations prematurely stopped, they took the precaution to fill up the partially exhausted flasks with water and then to reseal them. When, for a long time afterward, the doctor brought forth samples of his precious stock for the delectation of guests worthy of it, and the company tasted it with a due sense of awe, it was privately felt that the celebrity of these great brands was all moonshine, that ordinary table d'hote bordeaux was preferable to them. But nobody dared to say so, and it was only after the death of his dreaded parent that the novelist confessed the sacrilege.

He Got a Mate.

A sea captain called at a village inn
and asked the landlady, a young widow:
"Do you know where I can get a mate? I have lost my mate."

"I am very sorry for you, Mr. —,"
she said, smiling. "I want a mate, too, and cannot get one. As we are in the same position, I'll tell you what I'll do
—if you'll be mine, I will be yours."

He closed with the bargain, and, the widow keeping her word, he is now supplied with two mates.—Pearson's Weekly.

THE EXCITABLE FRENCH.

Scene in the Chamber of Deputies With the Members Enraged.

Upon arriving at the anteroom of the chamber of deputies, says Colonel T.
W. Higginson in The Atlantic, I found the hall full of people waiting, each having to send his card to some member, naming on it the precise hour of arrival. The member usually appeared promptly, when an immense usher called in a stentorian voice for "La personne qui a fait demander M. Constant" or whoever. It might be. Then the constituent—for such it usually was—advanced toward the smiling member, who never looked bored, the mask of hospitality being probably the same in this respect throughout the legislative halls of the world. At last M. Taland-ier appeared and got me a place among the corps diplomatique. The chamber itself was more like our representatives'

hall at Washington than like the house of commons. The members had little locked desks, and some were writing letters, like our representatives, though I saw no newspapers.

The ordinary amount of noise was like that in our congress, though there was happily no clapping of hands for pages, but when the members became especially excited, which indeed happened very often, it became like a cage of lions. For instance, I entered just as somebody had questioned the minister of war, General Borel, about an alleged interference with elections, and his defiant reply had enraged the Lefts, or radicals, who constituted the majority of the assembly. They shouted and gesticulated, throwing up their arms and then slapping them on their knees very angrily, until the president rang his great bell, and they quieted down lest he might put on his hat and adjourn the meeting. In each case the member speaking took his stand in the desk or tribune below the president, and the speeches were sometimes read, sometimes given without notes.

The war minister, a stout, red faced man—always, the radicals say, half intoxicated—stood with folded arms and looked ready for a coup d'etat, yet I heard it said about me that he would be compelled either to retreat or resign.
One saw at a glance how much profound political differences must be in France than with us.

Married on Thirty Minutes' Courtship.

"You may talk about your brief
courtships and marriages on short notice," said Captain Arm Cardwell once,
"but I think I once witnessed the quick-
est made match on record. I was running as a conductor between Russell-
ville and Owensboro, as I did for many years, and on a trip in the winter of 1881 I got a pretty country girl passenger at a little flag station south of Central City about 9:45 a. m. A few miles
farther on at another small station a
big strapping looking farmer, dressed
in brown jeans, with his trousers tuck-
ed in his tall boots, got on my train.
The fellow hadn't opened the car door
till he spied the rustic lass, and before
he took his seat in front of the girl he
had smiled at her.

"I punched his ticket, went in the
smoking car, and on my return to the
regular passenger coach found the Green
river tiller of the soil sitting in the
same seat with the maiden, chatting
with her as if he had known her since
birth. In 25 minutes after they had
first met the fellow called me to him
and said: 'See here, podner, we want
to get hitched. I hain't knowed Mirinda
Jane here but 30 minutes, but we both
like, an she's willin an so'm I. Whur's
the nighest parson, podner?' I took
them on to Owensboro, and the happy
bridegroom and his blushing other half
were passengers back on my train that
afternoon. For hurry up nuptials it
does strike me that these ought to have
the cake and other special prizes offered
for quick yeast love matches."—Louisville Post.
